

From: JaneM112@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/3/02 10:37pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I hope that the government allows Microsoft the additional four months to prepare their case.

As a computer instructor, I think Microsoft has given the consumer the easiest way to use a computer with Windows. My students who use Windows become self-sufficient much more quickly than those who use other programs. The bundled features and products which all work the same way, make learning simple and quick. The legal arguments from other companies are self-serving, ignoring the good of the consumer.

Jane Mason